Amelia Domer is a senior at Hawaii Pacific University, studying Strategic Communication. Born in Hong Kong and moving to the States at a young age, Amelia has always had a deep love for music, especially singing and writing her own songs. She's excited to be putting on this show and is thrilled to have the opportunity to share her original music with everyone. This project has been the perfect way for her to combine her passions for marketing and music. Amelia can't wait for the show and hopes you all enjoy it! You can connect with her on social media platforms at @ameliadomer.

Yusuf Najjar is a Palestinian-Persian musician and educator, concurrently completing his B.A. in Arts & Markets with a Music Concentration and his M.Ed. in Social Studies & Secondary Education at Hawai'i Pacific University. Originally from Manama, Bahrain, and raised in Ottawa, Canada, he is a graduate of Canterbury High School for the Performing Arts, where he earned a Certificate of Fine Arts in Dramatic Arts and completed the Business Specialist High Skills Major (SHSM) program.

He is honored to share a selection of his unreleased original compositions and lyrics tonight, performed by a variety of talented singers from our HPU 'Ohana. You can find him on all social media platforms at @Mr.YusufNajjar.
